OFFICE OF THE SUPERINTENDENT, GOVERNMENT STUD FARM, KUNIGAL.

Notification dated 27th November 1952.

In modification of the notification dated 11th November 1952, it is hereby notified for the information of the public that—

(1) the right of collecting the Minor Forest Produce such as tamarind, bela (wood apple), cocoanut, mangoes, fallen dried leaves (except hongey), etc., for 12 months from the date of auction,

(2) the right of collecting green hongey leaves in the farm, kavals and gardens attached to the Government Stud Farm, Kunigal, for manurial purpose will be sold in lots as may be deemed necessary, by public auction on the 22nd December at Kunigal Stud Farm by the incharge Superintendent.

2. The auction will commence at 12 NOON on 22nd December 1952 and if it is not concluded on the same day, it will be continued on the next day at the same hour.

3. No person will be allowed to bid unless a sum of Rupees twenty-five (Rs. 25) is deposited as earnest money either credited to any Government treasury under Revenue deposit in favour of the Superintendent, Kunigal Stud Farm and the chellan submitted to the Superintendent, Kunigal Stud Farm, or paid in cash at the Office and receipt obtained, which will be refunded to the unsuccessful bidders in the usual course.

3. The sale will be knocked down to the highest bidder. The successful bidders shall, pay the entire amount of the bid within a week from the date of confirmation of sale, less the earnest money deposit together with the Local Railway, Education, Health and other Cesses and Sales-Tax on the entire sale amount.

5. In default, the deposit will be forfeited to Government and the right resold, at the risk of the defaulting purchasers who will be liable to make good any loss that may result to Government, but will have no claim to any surplus accruing therefrom. Such losses will be recoverable as arrears of Land Revenue.

6. The successful bidders, so far as sale of green hongey leaves is concerned, shall remove the green hongey leaves within a period of one month from the date of receipt of orders, by them. The bidders shall not cut the branches of any dimension which is an offence. Contravention of this rule will entail in the imposing of a fine up to Rs. 200 at the discretion of the Superintendent, besides cancelling his sale, the same being resold at his risk as detailed at Para 5 above.

The terms, conditions and other detailed information on these items can be had from the Superintendent, Kunigal Stud Farm, on any working day during office hours.

7. The lessees shall not interfere with any farm operations, or farm livestock or any farm work. Should any damage be caused to the farm proporty or lives-tock etc., they shall be liable to pay such compensation as may be assessed by the Department.

8. The exclusive right of collecting and removing the produce referred to above will be disposed of to the highest bidder subject to the confirmation of sale by the Director, Animal Husbandry Services in Mysore, Bangalore, who at his discretion may accept or reject the highest or any other bid without assigning any reason therefor.

9. In case the sale is not confirmed in the name of the highest bidder, the next highest bidder may be called upon to take up the lease and in that case, he shall abide by all the conditions prescribed by him for the highest bidder. The deposits of the next highest bidders will be retained untill the question of confirmation of the sale is decided.

10. Within fifteen days of the intimation of the confirmation of the sale, the successful bidder shall execute an agreement in the prescribed form for the due fulfilment of the conditions of the contract, on a 12-anna Government stamp paper. In default the contract will be cancelled and the right resold, the defaulter being liable for any deficit, which will be recovered as arrears of land revenue. He shall have no claim to any surplus accruing therefrom.

11. No concession of any kind will be shown to the contractor for loss on any account. Bidders are warned that no transfer or sub-letting of leases will be permitted.
